Judge Nancy Whittenburg

....chaired the organization which gave out condoms to 12 and 13 year old Spencer children just before Valentine's Day.

...still profits today from selling the beer that often ends up in these young hands.

...will this year also be compensated $158,300 from taxpayers to rule over any statutory rape and drunk driving cases that end up in her court, likely in part, as a result of her profitable encouragement of such conduct.

...was never herself even investigated for violating Iowa Code 123.49 in serving alcohol on Sept. 6, 2002, to then-Clay County Attorney Mike Zenor into a drunken daze in her own home, which, minutes later resulted in Zenor's OWI arrest (0.151 blood alcohol content) and later conviction.

With judicial leaders like her is it any wonder so many children have little respect for authority? It is time to let the kids know we do care and start by throwing out corrupting influences like Whittenburg.

The Cameron Arnold Judicial Reform Initiative is a special project of Rescue the Perishing of Ocheyedan, IA. More of a Jefferson/Jacksonian than a Hamiltonian director Paul Dorr has been working since 1988 to educate voters of the encroaching "irresponsibility" (as Andrew Jackson coined it) of the judicial branch of government. One behind-the-scenes supporter of Dorr was Cameron Arnold, a former Assoc. District Judge in this district and past President of the Iowa Judges Association. Arnold was an avid supporter of Dorr's reform initiatives until he passed away in 1998 and to this day Dorr enjoys the endorsement of "Cam's" widow.

...to see a hypocrite in a black robe!

When your favorite bar owner serves too many beers to a man/woman who later injures an innocent party while driving his car, the bar owner himself can be convicted in court of a criminal offense and can be sued under Iowa dram shop laws in court for contributing to the harm done.

If you are hosting a party and you keep serving an obviously drunk attendee, you can be prosecuted in court under Iowa law, as well.

Yet, why was then-Magistrate Judge Nancy Whittenburg herself never even investigated for the same offense violating Iowa Code 123.49 in serving alcohol to then-Clay County Attorney Mike Zenor into a drunken daze in her own home, which, minutes later resulted in Zenor's OWI arrest (0.151 blood alcohol content) and later conviction?
